

HGTV Competition Show Official Rules and Eligibility Requirements

All applicants must comply with the following eligibility requirements ("Eligibility") of the untitled "HGTV Competition Show" program, the ("Program") in order to proceed with the application process:

1. Employees, officers, directors, and agents of Home & Garden Television ("HGTV"), Scripps Networks, LLC, the producer of the Program ("Producer" or "Producers"), and their respective affiliates, related entities, subsidiaries, divisions, parent corporations, and joint venture partners (collectively, the "Released Parties"), all Program advertising, promotional, and judging agencies, and all other companies associated with the production, and administration of the Programs and/or any of their respective licensees, assigns, parents, affiliated, and subsidiary companies, divisions, and joint ventures as well as (a) the immediate family (spouse, ex-spouse, mother, father, sister, brother, daughter or son, step-parents, step-children, step-siblings, regardless of where they live), and (b) members of the same household (whether related or not) of such employees, officers, directors, and agents, are not eligible to participate in this application process. In addition, HGTV may remove from consideration any applicant closely acquainted with any person connected with the production, administration, or exhibition of either Program if, in HGTV's sole discretion, the person's participation could create the appearance of impropriety.
2. All applicants must be at least eighteen (18) years of age (or the age of majority in their state of residence) at the time of application. All applicants must be United States citizens or resident aliens living in the United States with a legal right to live and work in the United States.
3. Applicants may not presently be a candidate for any type of political office ("Candidate") and may not become a Candidate from the time the application is submitted until one (1) year after the first broadcast of the last episode of the Program in which they may appear.
4. Applicants will be ineligible if, (a) at any time, they have been the host of a nationally televised design or renovation-related program (unless written documentation is provided releasing them from any contract or other obligation to such program); or (b) as of October 6, 2014, they have any type of contract for talent representation (for example, a talent agent or manager), an acting contract, a television hosting contract, a merchandising agreement, or any other contractual arrangement that would prohibit applicant from entering into a talent contract, management contract, and/or merchandising contract with HGTV. Any applicant who has appeared on or is involved with any television program or other media must disclose such information in his or her application and may, at HGTV's sole discretion, be deemed ineligible to participate in the Program. If any applicant is currently being considered as a contestant and/or participant in a television show, he/she must withdraw his/her application from such show upon HGTV's request.
5. All applicants must be in good physical and mental health. HGTV may also in its discretion require applicants to undergo medical or psychological evaluation as part of the casting process. To be considered, applications must meet all physical and psychological requirements as determined by HGTV in its sole discretion.
6. There are two (2) ways to apply for the Programs: Each teammate must provide an individual Participant Application along with the documents and materials listed below.

Option 1: Attend a Program open casting call AND complete an application at www.jscasting.com, which will include uploading the materials listed below. Visit www.jscasting.com for dates and locations of casting calls.

Option 2: Email a 3-minute home video AND complete an application at www.jscasting.com, which will include uploading the materials listed below. Visit www.jscasting.com for submission instructions.

All of the applications will require the following materials:

1. Signed release and waiver
2. Signed materials release
3. Two (2) recent photographs of yourself
4. If applicable a minimum of six (6) samples of your design and/ or renovation work
5. Resume
6. One (1) legible photocopy of EITHER (1) your passport; OR (2) your driver's license OR (3) your state ID card.

Applicant will be responsible for all costs and expenses associated with submitting a Participant Application via either entry method set forth above. Applicant should only submit design work that was done by applicant on his/her own.

7. In order for your application to be considered for the Program your Participation Application must be received by October 6, 2014. HGTV reserves the right in its sole and absolute discretion to consider any applications received after October 6, 2014, but there is no assurance whatsoever that any application received after such date will be considered for a Program. HGTV will not acknowledge receipt of any applications.

8. No applications (including any materials submitted in connection with a Participant Application or submitted as supplemental materials requested by HGTV and/or Producer ("Materials")) will be returned and the Participant Application and all Materials will become the property of HGTV, which shall have the right to use the Participant Application and Materials in any manner throughout the universe in perpetuity, as set forth in greater detail in the Release and Waiver. HGTV specifically reserves the right to use the Participant Application and Materials to evaluate applicants for programs other than the Programs ("Other Programs"), and to share all such materials with HGTV's sister networks (Food Network, Cooking Channel, Travel Channel, DIY Network, and Great American Country (GAC)) for similar evaluation. Neither HGTV nor its sister networks is under any obligation to consider any applicant as talent for Other Programs and any such agreement regarding services to be provided with respect to the same shall be subject to separate good faith negotiations between the applicable parties.

9. Applicants must enter in teams of two. Each applicant must fill out an individual Participation Application.

10. From among all the completed applications HGTV receives, staff and consultants of HGTV and the Producer will evaluate each application on a number of subjective factors, all of which have the aim of determining which applicants have what it takes to be on HGTV. We will be looking at personality, team interaction, interesting skills you may have with home renovation and overall performance among other related factors.

11. HGTV and/or Producer may disclose any information contained within or derived from my Participant Application to third persons connected with the Program and to compile information from third parties in connection with such Participant Application and the application process about applicant's background, personal views, and opinions about life, design, television, the media, and the like (collectively, "Personal Information"). HGTV and/or Producer may reveal such Personal Information to third parties in the course of the application process and/or the Program and I hereby release, discharge, and holds harmless the Released Parties from any and all claims and damages arising from such compilation or disclosure of Personal Information.

12. In order to be selected as a potential final participant in a Program (each a "Finalist", and collectively, the "Finalists"), you must be willing travel at HGTV's expense to (i) a location or locations to be determined by HGTV for a 6-8 week period between approximately January 1, 2015 through April 30, 2015 and from approximately June 15, 2015 and June 30th 2015 (all dates subject to change in HGTV's sole discretion) for the taping of the Program; (ii) selected locations on selected dates for a media tour in connection with promotion of the Program. HGTV will furnish Finalists with economy class air transportation, overnight accommodations (which may involve one of more Finalists sharing living quarters) or standard class hotel accommodations (room rate and tax only) as determined by HGTV or Producer, and a per diem while traveling for the Program. Applicants who will not be available for all dates requested by HGTV will be disqualified. Finalists must report and be available to participate in either Program at all times and places as HGTV or Producer shall designate.

13. All applicants who are selected as Finalists or potential alternates must complete and timely return a separate Finalist Agreement, which may include, among other documents: a Background Check Questionnaire and Confidentiality Agreement (all forms will be furnished to the Finalists). Upon request, all Finalists and the winner must sign any additional releases or authorizations that HGTV, in its sole discretion, deems necessary.

14. During taping of each Program, Finalists will travel to various locations to participate in home renovation reality competition. Challenges will entail long days (e.g., 10 to 12 hours or more) in front of television cameras and footage taped may be used in connection with the Program or any promotions related to the Program. At all times when the Finalists are on location, the Finalists will be subject to the instructions, directives, and schedules dictated by HGTV or Producer; non-compliance with such instructions, directives, and schedules may result in disqualification.

15. All applicants understand and acknowledge that participation in the Program, including, without limitation, the activities and events arranged by the Program coordinator and/or Producers (including, but not limited to, use of hammers, saws, ladders, and other equipment and materials used in a room makeover) may expose applicant and other participants to the risk of death, serious injury, illness, disease, and/or property damage. Finalists must be willing and able to participate in physical activities related to working and performing in design challenges (including, but not limited to, use of hammers, saws, ladders, and other equipment and materials used in a room makeover), on location, on television sets, and the like.

16. Applicants that are selected as a Finalist will be required to enter into a release and agreement with HGTV that will (i) render applicant exclusive to HGTV for a pre-determined period of time (meaning that applicant would not, among other limitations, be able to appear in programs in any media, make public appearances, publish a design or renovation-related book, or be associated in any manner with any commercial, advertisement, and/or endorsement without HGTV's express written permission in each circumstance); and (ii) give HGTV the option, at HGTV's sole election, to exercise the right to have applicant appear as a host, co-host, or contributor to HGTV programming or use applicant's name, image, and/or likeness in HGTV programming, merchandising, or other ancillary media (including a design-related book at a rate of compensation and in accordance with such terms and conditions that shall be determined by HGTV in its sole discretion).

17. Each applicant acknowledges, understands, and agrees that he or she, if chosen as one of the Finalists, may be audio and/or video taped (the "Recordings") by the Producer at all hours of the day while participating in the Program at the Producer's discretion with reasonable notification. Recordings may be disseminated on television and/or any other media now known or hereafter devised, in any and all manner throughout the Universe in perpetuity without payment of any additional consideration to Finalist.

18. Each applicant agrees to release, discharge, and hold harmless the Released Parties from any and all claims including, without limitation, claims for slander, libel, defamation, violation of rights of privacy, publicity, personality, and/or civil rights, depiction in a false light, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, copyright infringement, and/or any other tort and/or damages arising from or in any way relating to the submission of a Participant Application, participation in the selection process, participation in the Program, the use of the Personal Information or Recordings, and/or the use of the applicant's name, voice, and/or likeness in connection with the Program, or the promotion thereof in all media now known or hereafter devised.

19. Each applicant acknowledges and agrees that he or she is not and will under no circumstances as a result of the submission of a Participant Application, participation in the selection process, participation in the Program, the use of the Personal Information or Recordings, and/or the use of the applicant's name, voice, and/or likeness in connection with the Program, the promotion thereof in all media now known or hereafter devised or for any other reason in connection with his or her application and/or participation in the Program, become an employee or an independent contractor of the Producer and/or Released Parties and will not make any claims against Producer and/or Released Parties, including, without limitation, claims for compensation or benefits, derived from any allegation of status as an employee. Each applicant acknowledges and agrees that his or her relationship to Producer and/or Released Parties is and shall be limited solely to that of a grantor of rights. None of the Released Parties shall furnish or provide insurance coverage of any nature to applicant in connection with the selection process or participation in the Program.

20. All decisions related to the selection of the Finalists, any Program winner, the winners of the challenges in the Program, the judging of the various challenges in the Program (including all aspects of any voting processes), the application evaluation, and eligibility requirements shall be determined solely by HGTV and/or the Producer, are not appealable, and are subject to change at HGTV's sole discretion. At any time HGTV reserves the right to disqualify an applicant, to modify these rules and requirements or any aspect of a Program as it deems necessary, and to cancel the production and development of the Program or any programming contemplated hereunder. HGTV is under no obligation to exploit the Program in any media. HGTV reserves the right to select prospective participants and Finalists and to receive application materials at open casting calls, casting sessions, or through any other manner as determined by HGTV in its sole discretion.
